At a Court of Hustings for the Town of Staunton, held at the Court House, on Wednesday September 8th, 1858,

On the motion of R. W. Stevenson, Commissioner of the Revenue for the Town of Staunton, it is ordered to be certified to the Auditor of Public Accounts, that in making up the Property Book for the present year, he inadvertently omitted to charge Messrs. H. B. Brandenburg with one slave over 16 years of age, and personal property of the value of Five hundred and ninety dollars - the tax on said slave and property being $3.56; - Also, that he omitted to charge John N. Henderson, Guardian of John N. Fellet, - Mary R. - Martha, - Edward B. and Francis J. Brooke, with the fund in his hands for his said wards, amounting in the aggregate to seventeen thousand three hundred and seventy three dollars, the tax on said fund being sixty nine dollars and forty nine cents; - Also, that he omitted to charge Messrs. Martha McDowell's Estate with one slave over 16 years of age, and personal property of the value of one hundred and thirty dollars, - the tax on said slave and property being one dollar and seventy two cents; - And that he also omitted to charge Dr. J. Kennelias with his Income as a Physician, to wit, Five hundred dollars - the tax on said Income being (at one-half of one per centum) Two dollars and fifty cents. - That he has added the said Slaves, personal property, Fund and Income, and the tax thereon, to the Copy of his Property Book for the present year filed in the Clerk's Office of this Court, and that he has delivered to R. Turk, Sheriff of Augusta County, a statement of the said Taxes.
